NEW SHEET

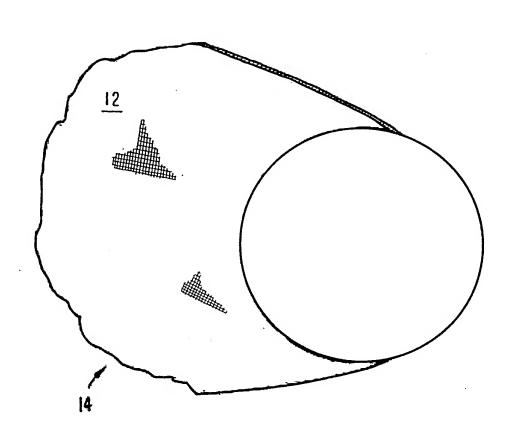

FIG. 8

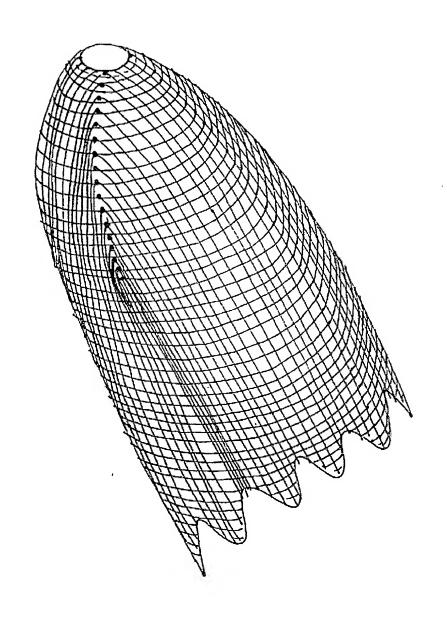

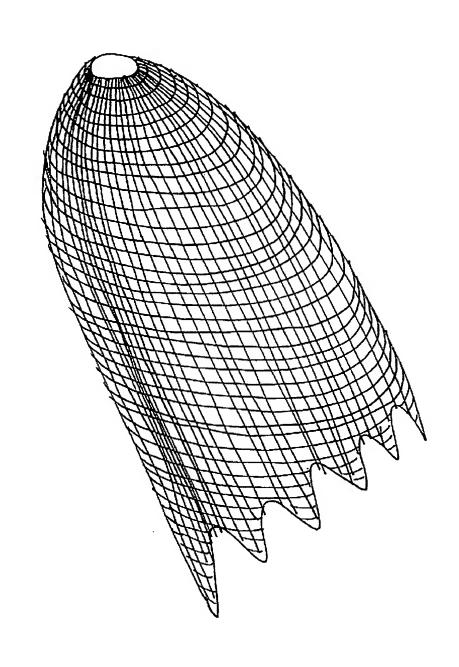

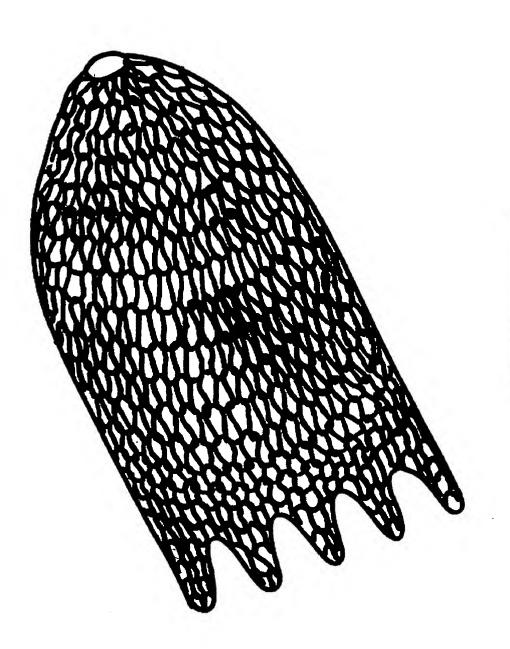

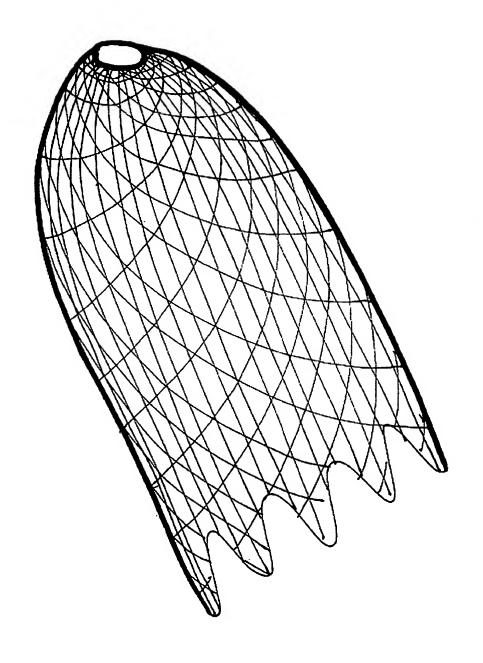

FIG.9A

NEW SHEET

Form a tapered front end and a tapered rear end such that one end of each has a front end, main tube and/or rear end of the flexible fluid containment vessel Coat tubular textile structures to make the structures impervious to liquid Select two or more coated tubular textile structures to become the Attach the front end and/or the rear end to the main tube circumference that is less than the first circumference circumference by weaving, knitting and/or braiding Make tubular textile structures having a first

Seal front and rear ends of each structure to rigid connectors with one or both of these rigid connectors having provisions for filling and emptying the flexible fluid containment vessel